Your Personal Data

We ask for your name and email address on our Contact Form so that the website manager (committee member) can pass your enquiry to the relevant committee member, who will then reply to you directly. Your personal information is given voluntarily. Your personal information will never be shared with third parties.

UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)

In accordance with UK and European law under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), individuals have 8 key rights regarding the personal data we hold about you:

1. The right to be informed if your personal data is being used
2. The right of access to copies of your data
3. The right to rectification if there are errors
4. The right to erasure of your data
5. The right to restrict processing of your data
6. The right to data portability in an accessible manner
7. The right to object to the processing or use of your data in some circumstances
8. Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.

Should you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact the Society using the Contact Form on this website.

If you would like more information about GDPR, please see Your data matters on the Information Commissioner's Office website.

Hosting and Cookies

Weebly hosts our website and there are various default cookies which they need to use for functionality, performance and analytical reasons. Cookies are small files of text and numbers that websites place on your device as you are browsing.

For further information about Cookies and how to control their settings, please see the Information Commissioner's Office website.
